

"About this time", as Josh Billings said, "expect" a copy of Senator Page's Speech on Vocational Education

SENATOR PAGE MAKES A SPEECH

Topic Is "Vocational Education", Delivered for Home Consumption, To Be Used in Present Senatorial Campaign!

Senator Carroll S. Page delivered a speech in the United States Senate on Monday, July 24, 1916.

A Vermont present, writing home his impressions of the speech, says:-

"Amidst an atmosphere of serenity and calmness not unlike the peace that hovers over the Bull Run school house in vacation time, Mr. Page of Vermont today (July 24, 1916) delivered his address on vocational educational training. I emphasize the peace and quiet of the occasion. No one was present. This is not quite literally true. But as I went into the Capitol this morning one of my friends said: 'Your favorite statesman is speaking.'

"He began speaking at 10 o'clock. I went into the Senate at 10:40. This was the situation then: I found the press gallery altogether empty.

SIX SENATORS BESIDES THE DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER WERE PRESENT.

"Of these five were busy studying bills and papers in preparation for the day's work. The other, not engaged with papers of any sort, sat quietly in his seat—asleep I think. Mr. Page droned away in a monotone. Nobody could hear him and the attendance showed quite clearly that nobody wanted to. I must add that as I left the gallery, I saw Senator Dillingham enter the chamber, fortified with a palm leaf fan.

"It struck me that it did not require political or moral courage to deliver a speech on vocational education at this time. I am sure that it will not require self sacrifice or large expenditure on Mr. Page's part to have the speech printed and widely distributed. I venture a guess that his constituents are far more interested in his vote on rural credits."

Mr. Page fathered a vocational training bill in the Senate. Mr. Lever favored a bill on the same subject in the House. The Lever bill is given credit of being by far a better measure. The House passed it. Senator Hoke Smith, a giant physically and mentally a power in the Senate, practically took over the Lever bill, his effort CAUSING THE PAGE BILL TO FALL IN THE DISCARD.

The Vermonter in Washington who heard Senator Page's speech writes further on the situation. He says that the Hoke Smith vocational educational bill is on the senate calendar, but that it will not be acted on this session.

WHY, THEN, A SPEECH ON THE BILL BY SENATOR PAGE AT THIS TIME FOR ANY OTHER REASON THAN FOR DISTRIBUTION TO THE VOTERS OF VERMONT FOR CAMPAIGN PURPOSES?

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE IN VERMONT DESIRE TO KNOW WHAT SENATOR PAGE HAS STOOD FOR AND WHAT HE HAS CREATED IN THE WAY OF PROGRESSIVE CONSTRUCTIVE LEGISLATION THE EIGHT YEARS HE HAS BEEN A SENATOR.

Will Mr. Page Answer?
